Salary scale 2 Point 3-4 FTE £27,535-£27,967
Actual £15,884-£16,134

Required as soon as possible

We are seeking a dedicated, caring and enthusiastic Learning Support Assistant (LSA) to join our highly inclusive secondary school and supportive team. This is an exciting opportunity to work within a school community where every student is known, valued, respected and encouraged to achieve their full potential. You will work collaboratively with teachers, pastoral staff and the SEND team to provide high-quality support for students with a range of additional needs, helping them to access learning, develop independence and build confidence. We pride ourselves on our inclusive ethos, strong teamwork and commitment to professional development, and you will be joining a welcoming team where colleagues support one another and share a genuine commitment to making a positive difference to the lives of young people.

This job would see you report to the Head of the Learning Support Department and you will be working within classrooms across a range of subjects and a range of ages. Training will be provided so experience is desirable but not essential.

We can offer you a comprehensive induction package and professional development to support this role as appropriate. At Altwood Church of England School you will have the opportunity to have an impact on whole school development and make a real difference to the lives of students.

Further information about the school can be found on the school's website www.altwoodschool.co.uk as well as the Support Staff Application form, we do not accept CV's
